Child Predator Task Force undercover investigation leads to child pornography arrest

Dover – An online undercover investigation of child pornography by the Delaware Child Predator Task Force has resulted in the arrest of a Delaware man on child pornography charges. As a result of that proactive investigation, officers from the Child Predator Task Force and Delaware State Police Troop 2 executed a search warrant yesterday at a residence located at 117 Rosemary Court in Bear. Officers seized three laptop computers and other digital media and an initial forensic review revealed multiple video files of child pornography.

“This arrest is another example of how proactive undercover investigations by our Child Predator Task Force are identifying and stopping illegal activity that threatens our kids,” Attorney General Biden said.

The occupant of the residence, Daniel D. Brauer, age 32, was arrested following an interview at Troop 2 and was charged with 29 counts of using a computer to unlawfully depict a child engaged in a prohibited sex act. Brauer was arraigned and was committed to Howard R. Young Correctional Institution in default of $290,000.00 secured bond.
